About the School for Social Entrepreneurs

The School for Social Entrepreneurs (SSE) is the leading UK provider of learning programmes that support and develop social entrepreneurs: individuals working entrepreneurially to create social benefit.

The SSE runs practical learning programmes aimed at helping develop both the individual social entrepreneur and their organisation: our approach, and belief, is that social change is people-powered, and that the most valuable assets and resources we have are human ones.

SSE supports individuals to realise their potential and to establish, scale and sustain, social enterprises and social businesses across the UK, Australia, Canada and India.

About SSE in London

This role will be based within our Central London Offices at London Bridge. This is a critical role within our London School. As part of the central office the London school is the flagship provider of learning activities for social entrepreneurs. Running a wide range of courses including one day, 3 month and year-long courses we work with over 500 participants a year.

Working closely with SSE's Head of Learning, Director of London School and the other Learning Manager you will design, plan and deliver high quality learning programmes and support for social entrepreneurs enabling them to develop organisations that have social benefit and contribute to their personal development as leaders of change.

We work hard to ensure all our activities are of a high quality and work supportively with colleagues in our international franchise to share good practice and ideas.

Our central offices in London Bridge are busy, friendly and dynamic with 24 staff based here. SSE is a vibrant organisation; we work entrepreneurially and are hugely committed to providing quality learning opportunities for social entrepreneurs. About You

We are looking for someone who has great people skills, including facilitation and who ideally has experience of coaching and planning and delivering learning programmes. Ideally you will also have an understanding, and perhaps experience of, setting up and leading new projects and organisations. You will understand alternative learning models and share SSE's fundamental value of learning by doing. You will be able to form relationships quickly and work with openness and integrity. Above all, you'll be passionate about social entrepreneurship and helping people to develop. So as well as good facilitation and chairing skills, you will be able to help students draw out learning from external speakers that is useful for their own personal development and their organisations.
