Introduction

The Lloyds Bank and Bank of Scotland Social Entrepreneurs Programme: Scale Up

The Lloyds Bank and Bank of Scotland Social Entrepreneurs Programme is run in partnership with the School for Social Entrepreneurs and jointly funded by The National Lottery Community Fund.

The programme gives social entrepreneurs the best possible chance of success, particularly during these challenging times through access to support, learning and funding. The Scale Up programme is best suited if your organisation is well established, and ready to significantly scale up your income and impact through social franchising, increasing its geographical reach or making a step change in its impact, through developing new products, services, markets or partnerships.

We recognise that your focus in terms of growth and development may be how to bounce back from the crisis, accelerate recovery and build a stronger, sustainable, resilient business model for a greater social and/or environmental impact. Our programme will be responsive to the needs of participants through innovative learning approaches.

The programme has supported over 2,000 social entrepreneurs in the UK since 2012 with over a third of the social enterprises operating in the most economically disadvantaged communities.

What are these guidance notes for?

This document explains more about the programme and grant, and how to apply. Please also feel free to LBSEP2021@sse.org.uk if you have read the application guidance but are unsure about suitability for the programme.

Accessibility and our commitment to inclusion

If this document is formatted in a way that is not accessible to you, please email LBSEP2021@sse.org.uk or call us on 0207 089 9120.

We want our programmes to be as accessible as possible. If you require reasonable adjustments for the application and assessment process or to participate in the programme due to a disability, caring responsibilities or any other reason, you can provide details in the application form or contact us by phone or email to discuss further.

If you identify as neurodiverse please refer to the FAQ on page 16.

No educational qualifications are needed to join our programmes.

Do I need to answer the Equal Opportunities questions?

The first part of the application asks you for information that helps us better understand who we attract to our programmes. You don't have to answer this section, but it will help us become a more inclusive organisation if you do.

We care about diversity and inclusion in every aspect of our work and beyond. We care about the students we recruit, the content of our programmes, the way they are delivered, and the people delivering them. We are also committed to learning and assessing our progress. We cannot assess our progress unless we collect this data.

Please be assured that your monitoring completion is not tied to your application in any way and is separated from each application we receive. We want a fairer society, we want to be inclusive and we want to fight bias at every step. We'd be really grateful if you could spare the time - thank you.

Remember to apply in time!

The deadline for applications is 1pm, Friday 16th April 2021

About the School for Social Entrepreneurs

We can't fix issues like poverty, climate change and ill-health alone. That's why the School for Social Entrepreneurs (SSE) exists. We help 1,000 people a year develop the skills, strengths and networks they need to tackle society's biggest problems. Please click the following links to find out more:

- We are the School for Social Entrepreneurs
- The SSE effect!

We run courses that equip people to start, scale and strengthen organisations that make a positive difference. But we're not a traditional school. Learning with SSE is inspiring, action-based and accessible - no textbooks. Lord Michael Young founded SSE in 1997. Today we work internationally, with teams across the UK, Canada and India.

Together, we're changing lives and transforming communities.

The Scale Up Programme

In a nutshell:

- Free learning programme made up of 10 learning days, four Action Learning Sets, spread between October 2021 and October 2022 in full day and half-day sessions.
- Up to £7,000 Trade Back grant
- A community of like-minded people to meet regularly and work through challenges.

We value diversity and inclusivity and believe in the power of the group through peer-learning, collaboration, reflection and being yourself. This programme will be responsive to the needs of participants and encourage innovation to help you lead on social/environmental change and build a stronger and resilient business model.

The Scale Up programme is delivered by our London team. There are approx 20 places available and open to organisations from anywhere in the UK. We have limited places for organisations based in Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland and the Channel Islands.

What will I do on the programme?

Expect to try new approaches and learn through doing. SSE's learning programmes are very different to traditional teaching. We're not about essays and academia.

- Learn from experts, leaders and social entrepreneurs who will speak frankly about the good, the bad and the ugly of running an organisation so you can learn from their experiences. (This playlist of videos shares the types of stories you'll hear.)
- Build a support network. You will be in a cohort of around 20 people to learn together as the programme emphasises peer-based learning.
- Join an Action Learning Set: a valuable space with a small group of people in your cohort to guide each other to developing your own solution to challenges.

What will I gain?

The programme is a transformational experience that will push, challenge and support you. It will give you the confidence and skills to achieve the impact you are aiming for, including:

- Improved entrepreneurial skills to increase income from trading and strengthen financial resilience.
- Skills to expand your reach, increase social or environmental impact and evidence the impact.
- Management and leadership skills to innovate, respond to challenges and create the change.
- Access to a mentor and a support network through peer learning with people at a similar stage as you.

Our learning managers are expert facilitators, so they'll flex learning to ensure everyone's needs are met, as well as creating a great group dynamic.

Some of the topics we are likely to cover:

- Transitioning from working in the business to working on it
- Building an effective team and delegating responsibility
- The drivers to scaling
- Measuring social impact at scale
- Tools for developing and sharing evidence
- Developing your business model for scale
- Securing a diverse and secure income base
- Building robust financial processes
- Developing governance for growth
- Avoiding burnout and managing change
- Leveraging partnerships for scale

Eligibility

Who is this programme for?

We're looking for leaders of a well-established organisation with a clear social or environmental purpose.

We will be looking for organisations that have realistic plans to significantly scale up their social impact. This might mean:

- Extending the geographical reach of your organisation by providing services in new areas.
- Developing new markets and partnerships to extend your reach.
- Developing a replication approach, for example social franchising.

The programme works best for organisations that are going through significant change. It is not intended to simply replace funding for existing work, or to continue the work of your organisation at a similar level. You must be doing more than just developing or expanding your existing service. There must be a significant step change in your work and increased impact.

If your income from trading has ceased, we recognise that your focus may be centred around rebuilding and recovery and restarting your trading. Find out what we mean by income from trading in FAQs. We will consider the impact of Covid-19 when assessing the income criteria. So, if you were expecting to have £75,000 income this year, but you are not going to because of Covid-19, please tell us about this in your application form. We will take this into account.

About you:

- You are socially driven, action oriented, passionate about change, a reflective and active learner and collaborative.
- You are committed to attending the learning programme, (the grant is dependent on 80% attendance)
- You are aged 16 or over.
- You live in the UK and have the right to work in the UK.

To be eligible for this programme, your organisation must:

- Be at least two years old.
- Have at least two paid staff members including yourself
- An annual income of more than £75,000.* Go to FAQs for more information on income.
- A formal governing document in place for your organisation. In exceptional circumstances we may consider sole traders if they are in the process of registering an organisation.
- Most of your work and beneficiaries are based in England. We have limited places for Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland and Channel Islands.

*We will consider the impact of Covid-19 when assessing the income criteria. So, if you were expecting to have £75,000 income this year, but you are not going to because of Covid-19, please tell us about this in your application form. We will take this into account.

Please do not apply if...

- You plan to develop a purely commercial business
- Your project is primarily to provide business development support and advice to other organisations
- Your project will be undertaking party political activities or promote the advancement of religion
- Your project will not have a formal constitution or legal structure by the start of the programme

What is the time commitment and schedule?

The learning sessions will be typically spread over 12 months from October 2021 as either/or a combination of half day sessions and full day sessions. Sessions will typically not take place during the school holidays and half terms.

- 10 x learning days
- 4 x Action Learning Sets
- A graduation in October 2022 to celebrate your achievements and completing the programme

The learning programme is only part of the picture though. You will need to be developing your project during the year and will need to have the time and commitment to do this.

The Trade Back grant

Our Trade Back grant helps organisations to get back on track following the Covid-19 crisis. We also want to support you to improve your financial sustainability by increasing your income from trading and sales. You will be matched with a grant manager throughout the year to support you with questions about your grant and how you can spend it.

We will set aside £7,000 of funding for your organisation as part of this programme.

You'll get:

- An instant grant of £3,000.
- Plus, up to a £4,000 grant that pound-for-pound matches an increase in income from trading. This is an incentivised grant to accelerate recovery and growth.
- This element of the grant will be paid in instalments on a quarterly basis and will be matched against an increase in trading. The increase will be measured against a baseline that we will set with you. For some organisations, this baseline could be very low, i.e., close to zero.

Watch our 80-second video explaining Trade Back grants.

What if my income from trading does not increase?

We will work hard with you to support you to increase your trading, and we hope you will. We want to give you the money and believe you have the potential to achieve this growth.

If you don't increase your income from trading at all, you will still receive the £3,000 instant grant, participate in the learning programme and graduate if you have attended 80% of the course.

What do we mean by income from trading?

Our definition of trading is the provision of goods or services in return for a "consideration". Consideration usually means money, but could also be in-kind or bartering, as long as this is quantified and shown in your accounts.

Income from trading includes:

- Sales of goods or services to the public, for example - selling food, tickets, training sessions, workshops
- Sales of goods or services to other organisations, for example, training courses, commissions, contracting
- Sponsorship and membership fees, where there is a significant benefit for the sponsor or member
- Rental income

It does not include:

- Donations or voluntary contributions
- Income from investments
- Bank interest
- Loans
- Equity income (e.g. through sale of shares)
- Grants, for example from trusts
- Transfers of funds from other organisations, e.g., in the case of a merger
- Sponsorship or membership fees, where there is no significant benefit to member or sponsor

We can advise you about this if you are not sure. And just to be clear, by income from trading we don't mean surplus or profit - just income.

What can I spend the Trade Back grant on?

We will be as flexible as possible about how you spend the grant. But your grant must be used to support your learning and to put that learning into practice through developing trading within your organisation.

You can use your grant towards items such as:	We cannot fund any of the following:
Your salary or staff salaries to support you to attend the programme or to support the development of trading in your organisation	Private benefit that is not “incidental” (see below)
Developing new products or services	Assets over £1,000 in value, including refurbishment of buildings or purchase of vehicles unless agreed with us.
Marketing and publicity: e.g. developing a website to support your trading	Work that has taken place before the grant was awarded
Travel and subsistence costs, including for attending the programme	Costs associated with the application or interview
Supplementary training for yourself or others, directly relevant to your project	Expenditure outside the UK, except as agreed with us
Other costs that you can show are relevant to developing your trading activity or putting your learning into practice	Anything that would create religious or ethnic discord or would support illegal activities.

Can my organisation buy assets with grant?

You can apply for individual items of equipment or assets worth up to £1,000 per item. For example, you may need to buy specific office equipment, or intellectual property rights. We cannot agree to pay for any individual items that are worth more than this, even if you are contributing some of the cost yourself. If you want to spend more than this on a single item, and you think the circumstances are exceptional, please contact us at LBSEP2021@sse.org.uk or call 0207 089 9120.

How will the Trade Back grant be paid to my organisation?

Your organisation must have a UK bank account and this must either be solely controlled by you, or have “dual authority” i.e. at least two people have to sign cheques. You will need to sign terms and conditions and provide us with all necessary documents and baseline financial data before we release the first payment. In order to receive the full grant, you will need to attend at least 80% of the course and increase your income from trading as described above.

Appendix: FAQs

What if I have particular needs which may prevent me from fully taking part in the learning programme?

If you have any particular needs or there are any barriers that may prevent you from taking part in the programme, please do talk to us about this. We are keen to enable people with disabilities and other access issues to come to our programmes, and we have funding set aside to support access needs to a reasonable degree. If and where programme events are held in-person, we ensure facilities are accessible.

Neurodiversity

We want to offer the best possible learning experience for all students, and we recognize that students will have different learning needs. We use the ACAS definition of Neurodiversity.

“Neurodiversity refers to the different ways the brain can work and interpret information. It highlights that people naturally think about things differently. We have different interests and motivations and are naturally better at some things and poorer at others. It is estimated that around 1 in 7 people (more than 15% of people in the UK) are neurodivergent, meaning that the brain functions, learns and processes information differently. Neurodivergence includes Attention Deficit Disorders, Autism, Dyslexia and Dyspraxia.”

If you identify as neurodiverse please do let us know. This is important information that can ensure we provide the very best application and learning experience for you.

What organisational structure will I need to have for the programme?

When you come on the programme you must have a formal organisation in place. This means your organisation needs to have a constitution or governing document. This should include a social purpose, a requirement that most of its profits will be returned for social purposes and an asset lock.

If you don't have this structure yet, please speak to us before applying.

Which types of organisation will be funded?

We can fund organisations which are set up as not-for-profit organisations or return the majority of their profits for social purposes. This includes:

- charities,
- community interest companies (CICs),
- unincorporated charitable organisations,
- community benefit societies, or
- other legal structures that are asset locked and return a majority of profits for social purposes.¹

¹ If you are able to pay dividends to private individuals, you will need to demonstrate how your

What do you mean by “more than two years old”?

We are seeking organisations with a proven track record. For Scale Up, you need to demonstrate you are a legal entity, but we recognise that the legal form may have changed. For instance, the project may have been running and active for two years hosted by a larger organisation, or if you were a sole trader and have only recently registered as an organisation. You will need to show us that the activity is at least two years old.

What do we mean by “social or environmental impact in disadvantaged areas”?

We are looking for projects that improve the lives of disadvantaged people or communities ‘We’re keen to support projects that support disadvantaged (often referred to as deprived) areas. If your project is looking to support a geographical area that has high deprivation, tell us in your application. Click here for information on the government’s indices of multiple deprivation.

We will not consider purely arts, heritage or animal projects unless they show that they are focused on improving the lives of disadvantaged people or communities.

What do you mean by “more than £75,000 income”?

We mean all income, not just income from trading - so grants and donations count. You should have more than £15,000 income in the last financial year OR in the last 12 months OR committed in this financial year. We would not normally consider directors loans and shares as income but will consider this on a case-by-case basis. We will take into account if Covid-19 has impacted on any planned income and there is flexibility on the income criteria.

What do you mean by “at least two paid members of staff”?

The project must have the resources to grow. To do this the project must have two or more people able to give time to the project and it should be at a stage where two or more people are paid regularly. This might be yourself, a director, staff member or regular sessional workers or administrators. It does not include paying for professional services such as an accountant or a lawyer.

What do you mean by “leading a project”?

We mean the people who come on the programme should be the ones that hold the vision for their project and are passionate about the ideas behind it. They will be the drivers of change and have the strategic ability to make the changes that are necessary. Usually this is the founder or the CEO, but it may also be the chair or a key senior manager or director. The programme is not suitable as a training programme for people who are staff or project leaders who are simply employed to develop a project.

The programme and the grant are connected to you as an individual. You cannot allocate the place to someone else in your project and if you leave the project, the grant may be withdrawn.

organisation is primarily for public benefit and that this grant will not be used for private benefit.

We recognise that, in some cases, social entrepreneurs have set up and are leading projects that are hosted within established organisations. The Scale Up Programme is open to leaders of these projects as long as they are clearly defined as a distinct part of the host organisation and have a degree of independence within it. You will need to demonstrate this. If you are unsure, please contact us via LBSEP2021@sse.org.uk

What do you mean by a hosted project?

Normally SSE supports the whole organisation, but sometimes we have applications from projects that are hosted or incubated by a wider organisation, for example, a children's cookery club that is being hosted by a large community centre, with a view to becoming independent later. We will accept applications from hosted projects, if there is an intention that the project will become independent, and the leader of the project has a considerable level of control over the project.

The expectation should be that if the leader of the project leaves the organisation, the project would go with them. You should ensure that your host organisation is willing and able to accept the grant on your behalf and can provide a supporting letter to us.

What happens if I cease to be linked to the organisation that has the grant?

The Scale Up programme is specifically for you as a social entrepreneur and leader of the organisation you are developing. The grant is given to your organisation or to your project through a host organisation. There is a requirement that you remain a leader of that organisation during the grant and learning programme period. If you fail to do so, or you cease to be associated with the organisation that receives the grant, both the grant and the learning programme may be withdrawn.

What about safeguarding?

If you work with children or vulnerable/at-risk adults, you will be required to show that you are following good practice on safeguarding children and vulnerable adults including having an up-to-date safeguarding policy and procedure in place, which includes getting enhanced checks for people who require them. Individual applicants working with children or adults in vulnerable situations will be required to have a Basic Disclosure.

Why are you asking about private benefit?

We know that there may be private benefits associated with your work - for example, you may pay salaries to individuals or commission private companies to do work. You may also pay dividends on shares. However, because this money is charitable, we must ensure that the grant is used for the public benefit and any private benefit is incidental - i.e. necessary to fulfil the social purpose of the project.

Sometimes, payments are necessary for the work of the project e.g. paying staff to deliver the work of the project, but if your project does provide private benefit beyond this to some individuals, we may restrict the grant to ensure that the grant is used solely for the benefit of the public.

What about other requirements?

You must also ensure that your project is acting within the law and that it has relevant approvals, permissions, licenses, and carries out any criminal records checks, required by law. You can apply for the cost of these as part of the grant. You will also be required have an equal opportunities policy in place.

If you are providing therapeutic counselling services, you must be able to demonstrate that you are properly trained and supervised, e.g. through membership of an appropriate body.

Can I apply for this programme if I have criminal convictions?

Previous participants have included people who have criminal convictions, some of whom have used their experience to make a difference to the lives of ex-offenders. You do not need to let us know about previous convictions unless they are relevant to your application.

If you have unspent convictions for fraud or convictions which may affect your ability to run your project, including working with children, young people or adults who are vulnerable, you should let us know. We may undertake checks during the course of the application assessment.

Can I apply if I have already been on an SSE programme?

You are welcome to apply if you have previously had training and support from SSE. We recommend allowing time between programmes in order to allow yourself space to embed your learning and test your ideas before directly embarking on another SSE programme. We recommend you speak to your regional team first before applying. It is not possible to be on two SSE long duration programmes (six months) at the same time.

Can I apply if I was unsuccessful in the past?

If you or someone else from your organisation or project has applied before and not been successful, you are welcome to apply again. However, we would suggest that you check the feedback you received in the past. If in doubt, you can contact us.

Can I apply for Trade Up and Scale Up at the same time?

For Trade Up, you will need to show that you are an early stage and growing business, planning to increase your income from trading to achieve sustainability. The income eligibility is £15,000. For Scale Up, you will need to demonstrate that you are already an established and sustainable organisation, with £75,000 annual income and 2 staff.

Your organisation will only be able to be placed on one programme, not both. We advise that you seek advice first if not sure.

Can more than one person from our project apply?

We will only assess one application from one person from your project or organisation. Please decide who you would like to attend the programme and they should be the one to apply. Because of the way the learning programme works and how the trust within the group is built, it is important that it is the applicant who attends all the sessions. In general, we will not allow others from your project to attend the programme.

Can I apply if I am connected to the School for Social Entrepreneurs, or to any of the funders of this programme?

We cannot accept applications from people who are staff or trustees of SSE. If you have a close connection with SSE, its host organisations, staff, trustees or the funders of this programme, please contact us before making an application.

Can I apply if I am supporting other businesses including social enterprises?

We do not usually accept applicants whose main work is providing training or business support services primarily to other businesses, including social enterprises or charities. This would include training, fundraising or management support. However, we sometimes consider applications where the services provided are mainly back office support services, such as HR, accountancy or office space, or where training is provided for people who are unemployed in order to help them access employment. If in doubt, please contact us.

What about Data Protection?

SSE is committed to protecting your personal information and acting in line with your rights under data protection laws and will treat all data in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.

SSE will collect and use personal information provided by you in this form or separately, or which we otherwise lawfully obtain about you. We may use this information for:

- processing your application and managing the selection process for the programme
- conducting due diligence on you and your organisation as part of that process

This includes contacting you about the workshop or programme which you are applying for by phone or email.
