

Recruitment information pack ENTREPRENEURSHIP FACILITATOR (South-West)

February 2022

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in applying to the School for Social Entrepreneurs. We have put together some information below which we hope will help you understand the organisation and the role. For more information please visit www.the-sse.org.

About the School for Social Entrepreneurs

We can't fix issues like poverty, climate change and ill-health alone. That's why the School for Social Entrepreneurs exists. SSE helps 1,000 people a year develop the skills, strengths and networks they need to tackle society's biggest problems. It runs courses that equip people to start, scale and strengthen organisations that make a positive difference. But it is not a traditional school. Learning with SSE is inspiring, action-based and accessible. SSE supports people in other ways too, such as funding and mentoring. Lord Michael Young founded SSE as a charity in 1997, and it's grown to a network of schools across the UK, Canada and India. Together, SSE is changing lives and transforming communities.

SSE is currently delivering a UK-wide five-year learning programme in 12 UK locations with the support of Lloyds Banking Group and Big Lottery Fund, and a national learning programme for community businesses in partnership with Power to Change. SSE also has strategic partnerships with corporates such as PwC, Linklaters, RSA Group and others as well as funding partnerships with trusts and foundations including Lloyds Bank Foundation. We also generate earned income through selling places on our short courses and workshops.

SSE is a vibrant organisation; we work entrepreneurially and are committed to providing quality learning opportunities for social entrepreneurs, community businesses and social sector leaders. Working here is engaging, exciting and demanding. If you are someone who enjoys creating solutions and contributing your ideas you'll enjoy how we work.

The Programme

The School for Social Entrepreneurs will be delivering an exciting new programme in Devon. This 15-month programme will run until the end of March 2023 and will consist of a range of consecutive programmes, plus exciting events for all participants. Supporting early stage and growing social entrepreneurs, we will help bring new products to market, businesses to grow and develop in the most sustainable way.

Role Purpose

Working closely with the Entrepreneurship Delivery Lead, other Entrepreneurship Facilitators, Entrepreneurship Support Leads, Administrators, and freelance business coaches and experts, you will take a pivotal role in building strong relationships across the Devon community that you deliver within to find and recruit the best changemakers onto our programme. You will also design and deliver high quality learning programmes and support for both potential and existing social entrepreneurs enabling them to develop organisations that have social benefit and contribute to their personal development as leaders of change.

Key Responsibilities

Find and recruit the UK's most promising social entrepreneurs

1. Build relationships with local and grassroots community partners working with social entrepreneurial talent and undertake outreach to ensure SSE is fulfilling its mission in yielding diverse pools of talented applicants.
2. Design and deliver innovative candidate assessment activities that bring out the best in the talent that applies for SSE's programmes, successfully identifies and tests promising entrepreneurial talent that could best benefit from SSE's programmes and minimises unconscious bias that may disadvantage minoritised applicants.
3. Work with the Impact Lead and Entrepreneur Support Leads to review application data, and develop plans for turbocharging the quality and diversity of future candidate application pools for SSE's programmes

Design and deliver SSE's innovative support for social entrepreneurs

4. Work with Entrepreneurship Delivery Leads and fellow Entrepreneurship Facilitators to design and deliver programmes that support SSE's social entrepreneurs and their ventures to build their capacities for social impact generation and commercial success. These programmes should be shaped by SSE's blended learning framework, organizational strategy, funder requirements and the needs of our social entrepreneurs.
5. Deliver 1-2-1 sessions, such as entrepreneurial diagnostics and enterprise coaching sessions, to support our social entrepreneurs to develop commercial and impact goals and provide 'critical friend' accountability as they work towards them. 1-2-1 sessions should include pastoral and wellbeing support in line with SSE's Health and Wellbeing Strategy, where appropriate.
6. Deliver group sessions for cohorts of social entrepreneurs, for them to grow their capacity for impact and commerce by drawing on the insights of their peers, and 'learning by doing' rather than 'learning by viewing'. Session themes would include financial management, business modelling, impact measurement, marketing, team development.

7. Support the planning and delivery of events for SSE's social entrepreneurs, including sessions for graduates of SSE's programmes (SSE Fellows).
8. Working with the colleagues across the Entrepreneurship Directorate, contribute to the development of robust monitoring and evaluation systems for SSE's programmes, and use impact data to improve the effectiveness of the support provided to social entrepreneurs

Build yours and SSE's changemaking know-how, regionally & globally

9. Build internal knowledge and expertise around the impact areas in SSE's Theory of Change (connecting people, addressing unemployment, reducing emissions, improving health, and tackling poverty) and the global best practice approaches to tackling these in order to support SSE's social entrepreneurs to innovate
10. Contribute to SSE's bank of entrepreneurship support resources, including activity plans and session plans, which are shared across SSE's family of Entrepreneurship Facilitators for the benefit of social entrepreneurs across the UK and internationally.

Forge relationships to support SSE's social entrepreneurs to thrive

11. Consistent with SSE place-based approach, embed yourself into the fabric of the social impact community across Devon. Use the connections you make to create new opportunities for our social entrepreneurs to turbocharge their impact or commercial success, and to bolster the reputation of SSE across the region.
12. Support the development of the pool of impact and enterprise speakers and experts who contribute to SSE's programmes

General responsibilities

13. Participate in regular one to ones with line manager as part of your ongoing personal development and training.
14. Participate in collaboration meetings and calls across the Entrepreneurship Directorate and across the organisation to support your own development, and the success of projects and programmes across the organisation
15. Carry out other tasks that are within the scope, spirit and purpose of the job.

Diversity Monitoring

SSE is committed to eliminating discrimination and actively encouraging diversity amongst our workforce and board by developing a team that mirrors the rich diversity found in our student population.

We will not discriminate with reference to age, gender, sexual orientation, race, colour, religion, marital status or disability.

To offer equal opportunities, prevent discrimination and support under-represented groups we encourage applicants to complete our online Diversity Monitoring form at <https://ecv.microsoft.com/EpslyNJat1>

The information on this form will be used for monitoring purposes only and will play no part in the recruitment process. All questions are optional. You are not obliged to answer any of these questions but the more information you supply, the more effective our monitoring will be.

In accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) 2018, the information you provide will be held confidentially and can only be used if you give us your consent.

As part of any recruitment process, SSE collects and processes personal data relating to job and volunteer applicants. We are committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses that data and to meeting its data protection obligations. Our data protection policy can be found here: <https://www.the-sse.org/your-data/>

Job Applicant Privacy Notice

As part of any recruitment process, SSE collects and processes personal data relating to job applicants. We are committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses that data and to meeting its data protection obligations.

What information does SSE collect?

SSE collects a range of information about you. This includes:

- your name, address and contact details, including email address and telephone number;
- details of your qualifications, skills, experience and employment history;
- whether or not you have a disability for which the organisation needs to make reasonable adjustments during the recruitment process; and
- information about your entitlement to work in the UK;

SSE collects this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be contained in application forms, CVs or resumes, obtained from your passport or other identity documents, or collected through interviews or other forms of assessment.

SSE will also collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers. We will seek information from third parties only once a job offer to you has been made and will inform you that it is doing so.

Data will be stored in a range of different places, including on your application record, in HR management systems and on other IT systems (including email).

Why does the organisation process personal data?

SSE needs to process data to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract with you. We may also need to process your data to enter into a contract with you.

In some cases, SSE needs to process data to ensure that it is complying with its legal obligations. For example, we are required to check a successful applicant's eligibility to work in the UK before employment starts.

SSE has a legitimate interest in processing personal data during the recruitment process and for keeping records of the process. Processing data from job applicants allows us to manage the recruitment process, assess and confirm a candidate's suitability for employment, and decide to whom to offer a job. SSE may also need to process data from job applicants to respond to and defend against legal claims.

For some roles, SSE is obliged to seek information about criminal convictions and offences. Where the organisation seeks this information, it does so because it is necessary for us to carry out our obligations and exercise specific rights in relation to employment.

SSE will not use your data for any purpose other than the recruitment exercise for which you have applied.

Who has access to data?

Your information will be shared internally for the purposes of the recruitment exercise. This includes members of the HR and recruitment team and interviewers involved in the recruitment process.

We will not share your data with third parties, unless your application for employment is successful and it makes you an offer of employment. SSE will then share your data with former employers to obtain references for you.

SSE will not transfer your data outside the European Economic Area.

How does SSE protect data?

SSE takes the security of your data seriously. It has internal policies and controls in place to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by our employees in the proper performance of their duties.

For how long does SSE keep data?

If your application for employment is unsuccessful, SSE will hold your data on file for 12 months after the end of the relevant recruitment process. At the end of that period your data is deleted or destroyed.

If your application for employment is successful, personal data gathered during the recruitment process will be transferred to your personnel file and retained during your employment. The periods for which your data will be held will be provided to you in a new privacy notice.

Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. You can:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request;
- require SSE to change incorrect or incomplete data;
- require SSE to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing;
- object to the processing of your data where the organisation is relying on its legitimate interests as the legal ground for processing; and
- ask SSE to stop processing data for a period if data is inaccurate or there is a dispute about whether or not your interests override SSE's legitimate grounds for processing data.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact office@sse.org.uk. If you believe that SSE has not complied with your data protection rights, you can complain to the Information Commissioner.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You are under no statutory or contractual obligation to provide data to SSE during the recruitment process. However, if you do not provide the information, we may not be able to process your application properly or at all.
